

Supplemental Fig. 1 Components of a Nutrition Assessment. Supplemental Figure 1 highlights the 9 major components of a detailed nutritional evaluation that should include assessments of medications, muscle mass and strength, fatigue, bone health, and dysphagia to ensure that that all relevant aspects of the medical history are carefully considered in the assessment.